OVC’s Enhancing Community Responses to the Opioid Crisis: Serving Our Youngest Crime Victims

• Purpose Area 1: Direct Services
• Purpose Area 2: TTA
• Definitions:
  – Although the opioid epidemic is the current substance abuse crisis facing Americans, OVC recognizes that drug trends change and individuals who use illegal drugs (or misuse legal drugs) often use or migrate to multiple other substances. Therefore, it is OVC’s intent to create a program that, first and foremost, provides for the needs of young victims of crime affected by substance abuse, regardless of the type of substance in question
  – For this solicitation and program, the term “children and youth” refers to newborns through teens (up to age 18)
  – Children and youth may be victims of a range of crimes, including, but not limited to, child abuse, criminal neglect, assault, sexual abuse/assault, theft, exploitation, endangering the welfare of a child, human trafficking, and kidnapping. A crime does not have to be reported to authorities for a child or youth to be eligible to receive services provided through this solicitation and program
Crime Victims
Identifying, Reaching, Serving

Children & Youth
And those who surround them/care for them e.g., systems, providers, parents, caregivers

“Opioid Crisis”
Addiction, substance abuse, inclusive of ALL substances, community efforts should be focused on the needs of that community

Members and Organizations
PTACC Mission: To strategically enhance the quantity and quality of community behavioral health, housing, and social service options through engagement in deflection and pre-arrest diversion

PTACC Purpose: To provide vision, leadership, education, and advocacy to facilitate the practice of deflection and pre-arrest diversion across the United States

Deflection: Interrupting the Inter-Generational Cycle of Addiction By Intervening Early Our Children

• Every Encounter an Opportunity – Turning 44MM annual police encounters into opportunities as part of an “early warning” workforce to watch out for and protect our youngest victims

• Deflection allows for early ID and intervention – For the safety of our children, the wellbeing of families, and interrupting the inter-generational nature of addiction and related issues (trauma, normed, crime)

• Addiction is Not Just About An Individual But a Family – Moving from focusing on the person suffering from addiction (How we tend to do it) to also include the children in the home (How we need to do it)
National CASA Association

• 94,000 volunteers providing best-interest advocacy through the court and community for 274,000 children who have been victimized

  - Identify children at the earliest point
  - Provide intervention and support
  - Provide targeted services

- DEC Roadmap & Toolkit: to guide communities/Tribes in building multidisciplinary groups as a foundation
  - Guide them through stages: awareness, implementation, & institutionalization

History: DEC efforts have evolved over 20 years
National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges (NCJFCJ)

Helping juvenile and family court professionals make evidence-based decisions related to substance use/abuse through national TTA projects

• The OVC Linking Systems of Care TTA project that focuses on young victims of crime

• The OJJDP Juvenile Drug Treatment Court Communities of Practice TTA project that focuses on substance users involved in juvenile justice

• The OJJDP Child Abuse Training for Judicial and Court Personnel that focuses on child abuse victims
National Center for State Courts (NCSC)

- NCSC serves as primary staff to the National Judicial Opioid Task Force (NJOTF), created in August 2018 to address the issues the courts are facing as a result of the opioid epidemic.
- NJOTF is developing tools and policy recommendations in areas related to children and families including MAT for adolescents, MAT for pregnant women and parents in the child welfare system, trauma, prenatal substance exposure, and the role of the court along the child welfare and SUD prevention continuum, among others. Available through the Opioid Resource Center for Courts website. www.ncsc.org/opioidresources
- NJOTF tools include comprehensive sets of best practices, policy recommendations, benchcards, research, statistics, podcasts, webinars, and other educational and training materials.
- NCSC is also working with several pilot sites on efforts to improve outcomes for children and families impacted by the opioid epidemic, including a medical-legal partnership serving pregnant women with OUD, a pre-petition child protection court intervention, and developing and piloting a conceptual framework similar to SIM but adapted for parents with SUD/OUD and the child protection system.
